++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy with rain arriving through the morning.

Today:
A dull, grey and cloudy start for most, though largely dry. However outbreaks of rain will arrive from the south during the morning, with the odd heavier burst in places before tending to ease and become patchier during the afternoon. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Remaining cloudy and damp through this evening and much of the night with some patchy rain. Some longer drier interludes may develop in the south late in the night. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tuesday:
The north remains cloudy with further rain at times on Tuesday. It will be brighter in the south with occasional showers, with strong winds taking the edge off the temperature. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Changeable and windy on Wednesday and Thursday, with spells of rain interspersed by some drier, brighter interludes. Drier and brighter on Friday with lighter winds. Mild or very mild.
